Says The Rockefeller Millions Are Built On A Foundation Of Plunder.

IS AN INSULT TO THE HONEST MEN

Declares The Acceptance Of A Gift From The Oil King Would Indicate Churchmen Were Untrue To Teachings.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE.]
Columbus, Ohio, March 27.—"The money proffered to our board of missions comes out of a collateral estate whose foundations were laid in the most relentless rapacity known to modern commercial history." So spoke Dr. Washington Gladden, moderator of the National Council of Congregational Churches, referring to the Rockefeller gift in a sermon Sunday night on "The Religion of a Gentleman."
Continuing, he said:
"The success of this business from the beginning until now has been largely due to the unlawful and outrageous manipulations of railway rates. The whole country is now up in arms against this species of robbery. It has a right to be. It has been a long time waking up to this enormity. It is to this cause far more to any other that the monopolies which have been grinding the life out of American industries owe their power."
"The man from whom our missionary society proposes to accept the gift is the great organizer of this system of plunder. His fortune was built on

ARE TO DEBATE WITH MICHIGAN

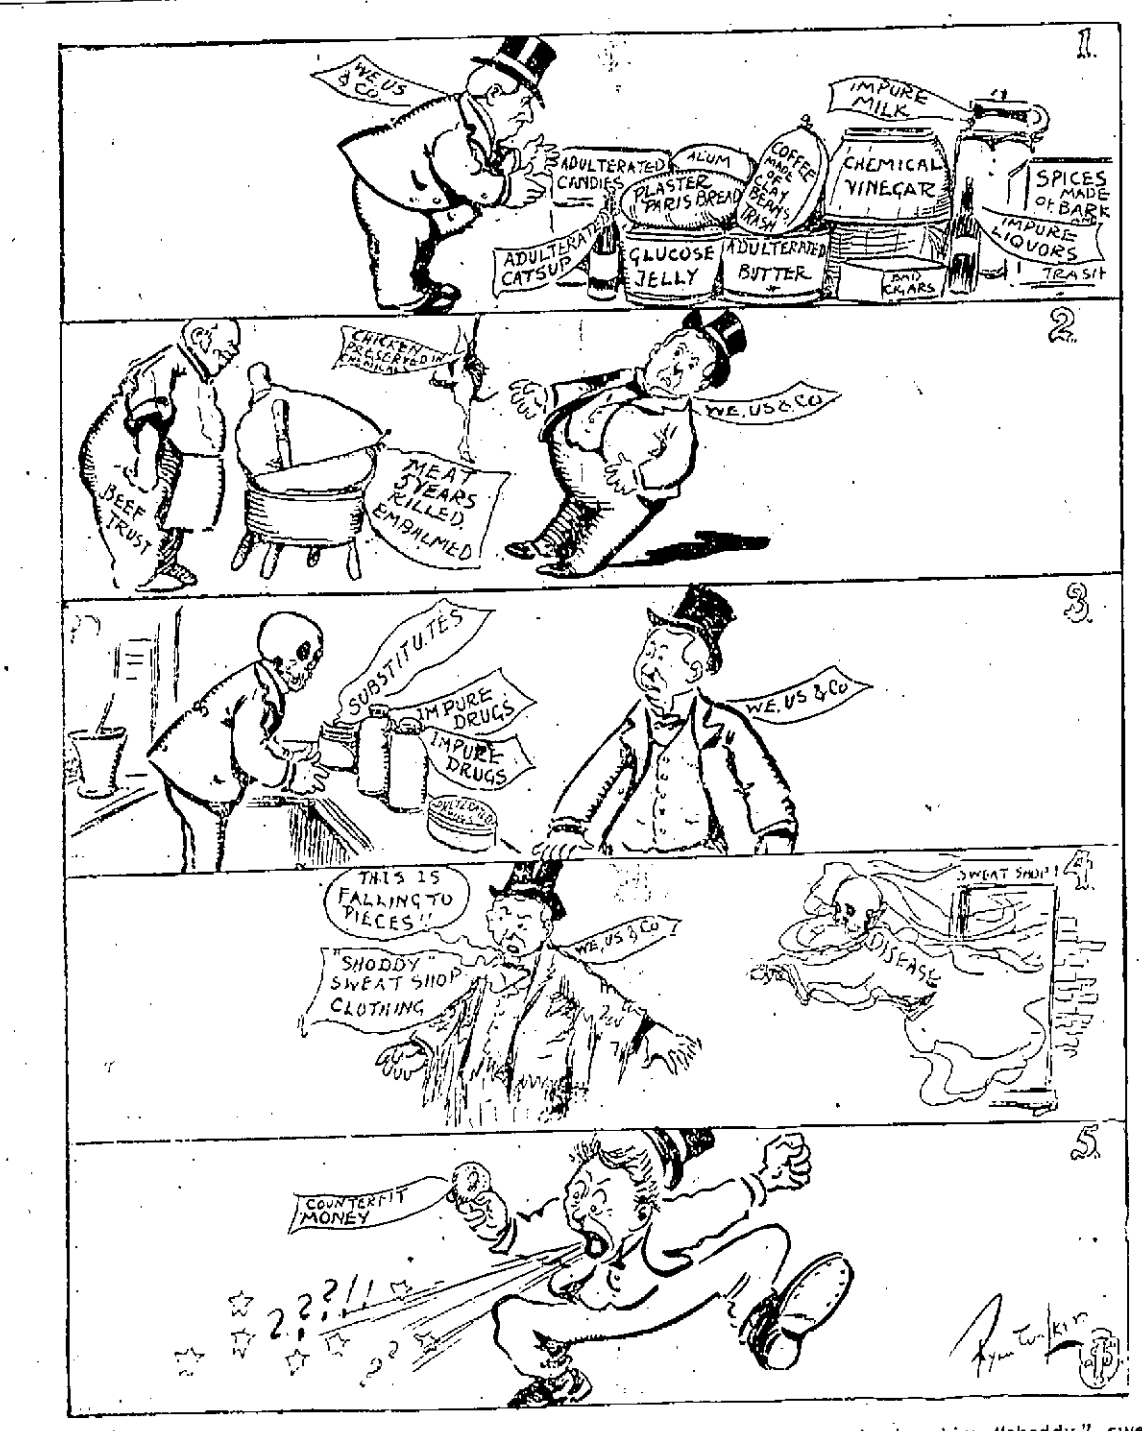

Wisconsin and Michigan Forensic Giants Meet in Joint Debate.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE.]
Madison, Wis., March 27.—Friday night the pick of the forensic giants of the University of Michigan will meet an equally strong trio of speakers in this city in the intercollegiate debate between the universities of the Wolverine and the Badger states. The question is upon the primary election system, being the system of holding elections under the Australian ballot plan for the selection of party candidates for office instead of holding caucuses and conventions. The Michigan team is composed of Messrs. E. J. Kinney, J. A. Rippel and J. E. Burke. They have been selected out of a large number of debaters through the admirable competitive system organized by Professor Trueblood, and which it is said is the secret for the wonderful success of the University of Michigan in winning intercollegiate debates and oratorical contests. Michigan seldom loses a debate or contest of oratory

VLADISTOCK TO BE NEXT ATTACKED BY THE FORCES

Japanese Plan To Capture The Last Of The Russian Holdings At Once.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE.]
St. Petersburg, March 27.—The Japanese are expected to land at the port of Korsakovsk, near Vladivostok, within a fortnight. It will be impossible for the Russians to resist and their evacuation will give the mikado's forces an excellent base of operations in the investment of the latter place, which will undoubtedly begin in the very near future.
The bays and inlets along the Manchurian coast will be free of ice early in April, and it is certain that the Japanese will not wait any longer in pushing the siege, which will be started with an assault by land and sea.
The possession of Vladivostok is the last accomplishment on which Japan insists, and after it is completed the mikado will be willing and anxious to bring the war to an end. He believes that with his army there he can practically dictate the terms of peace and force Russia to pay an enormous indemnity.
May Free The Convicts.
The entire Russian force at Korsakovsk is less than 2,000 soldiers and guards. There are 6,000 convicts in the penal camps, the remainder of the population comprising 3,000 natives and 6,000 time expired convicts, with women and children, who have settled in the island.
It is feared that the Russians will land the convicts on the mainland near Vladivostok, where they will be a dangerous menace to the Russian and Chinese populace, aiding in the siege of the port.

You can adulterate a man's groceries, liquors, drugs, embalm his meat and give him "shoddy," sweatshop clothing, and he won't kick—but just let someone pass an adulterated half-dollar on him and hear the awful roar.

HAVE CONFERENCE AS TO DOMINGO

Senator Spooner One of Those Who Attended Gathering This Morning.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE.]
Washington, March 27.—Secretary Taft, who is acting secretary of state, and Assistant State Adees and Senator Spooner of the senate committee on foreign relations held a lengthy conference with the president today. President Taft announced that the proposal of President Morales to select an American to take charge of the custom-houses of Santo Domingo and to supervise the payment of the American and European claims, was under consideration, but no conclusion has been reached.

Madison, Wis., March 27.—The Wisconsin legislature is to make a flying trip to the Twin cities and inspect the new Minnesota state capitol. This is the plan of a number of the leading members. Negotiations are in progress with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul company for low rates and special accommodations. Both are already assured by the company officials. So gracious have the railroad people been, in fact, that there seems in prospect some opposition from the administration faction, born perhaps of the fear that the roads will make themselves so agreeable to the legislators as to endanger the passage of the severe anti-railroad rate commission bill. A resolution for the trip will be introduced by Senator Stoddard tonight.

BLOWS MAN UP TO PLACE OF SAFETY

Explosion in the East River Tunnel at New York This Morning.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE.]
New York, March 27.—An explosion in the East river tunnel this morning blew the top of the tunnel out and seriously hurt five workmen. The air pressure was so heavy that one workman was forced upward through the river, where he grasped some debris and was rescued.

Cleveland, March 27.—Mrs. Chadwick, this morning refused to leave the county jail to go to the federal court, where a motion for a new trial was being argued, saying she was suffering from neuralgia and unable to dress. The federal authorities were ordered to force her, should it be necessary, whereupon Mrs. Chadwick, acting on the advice of her attorneys, consented to appear without further protest.
The motion for a new trial is based on technical grounds and on the claim the jury was not properly drawn. The argument attracted a big crowd as it was believed that should the motion be denied by Judge Taylor, he would promptly sentence the prisoner.

POPE DEPLORES THE CONDITIONS

Consistory Held But No New Cardinals Are Appointed by the Pope.

General Lnevitch in a dispatch dated March 25 reported no changes in the position of the armies.
An imperial order relieves General Gripenberg from the command of the Second Manchurian army, but permits him to remain as an aid de camp to the emperor.
Light in Old Report.
Prince Ulitsky's new paper, Dawn, has unearthed a remarkable report made by General Kouropatkin to Emperor Nicholas in the fall of 1903, in which the then war minister expressed the opinion that the Yalu concession was sure to induce war in the far east and took an optimistic view of Russia's ability to cope with Japan on land and sea, but expressed forebodings that the triple alliance might take advantage of the struggle to threaten Russia on the west, while Great Britain brought matters to a climax with the Afghans.
The whole tenor of the memorandum indicates that danger on the European frontier loomed large in the war minister's calculations, and creates the presumption that he was chary about dispatching heavy reinforcements to the front until Emperor William's assurances, given at the "billiard game" conference, removed the treat as to the western frontier.

HEIR TO FORTUNE IS IN AN ASYLUM

Illinois Resident Confined to Insane Ward Has Much Money Coming.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE.]
Bloomington, Ill., March 27.—Mrs. Richard Cox, who at one of the heirs of the late Abram Brokaw, the eccentric millionaire, received eighty thousand dollars, is now making an effort to secure the release of her husband from the insane asylum at Washington. Cox was a respected resident at Fairview, near Galesburg, and was arrested on the charge of boot-legging and while in prison at Peoria attempted suicide and was then sent to the asylum.

WARSAW CHIEF A BOMB VICTIM

Police Station Is Wrecked, And Six Men Hurt By The First Discharge.

THE HATED OFFICIAL IS MAIMED

Baron Von Nolken Is Attacked And Perhaps Fatally Wounded While On His Way To Investigate Complaint.

Warsaw, March 27.—Baron von Nolken, chief of police of Warsaw, was injured, perhaps fatally, by the second of two bombs thrown by two revolutionists last evening. The first was hurled into a police station to lure Von Nolken to the spot, and injured six men, wrecking the room in which they were sitting.
The man who threw the explosive into the police station was captured after he had wounded a policeman and had himself been wounded. Baron von Nolken's assailant escaped after killing a detective who was pursuing him.
Bomb Wrecks Station.
The first bomb was used shortly after 8 o'clock. The revolutionist, who was well dressed, went to the police station at Praga, a large suburb of Warsaw, on the other side of the river Vistula. He was seen to take the explosive from beneath his coat and hurl it through the open door of the station.
The havoc in the outer room was great. One wall was torn away and when other policemen entered they found their six companions amid the shattered furniture.
The revolutionist started to run, and in his flight met a policeman and shot him twice in the stomach. The bomb thrower was wounded by his adversary and was captured by the captain of the station and taken to a hospital. His identity has not yet been discovered.
Second Missile Hits Chief.
A telephone message was immediately sent to Baron von Nolken at the city hall. Baron von Nolken, accompanied by a police official, took a carriage and at once started for Praga. When they were passing the castle where the governor general resides a man standing on the pavement threw a bomb at the carriage.
Baron von Nolken, who was sitting on the side nearest the assailant, received the full charge of the bomb, but his companion escaped unhurt. The coachman was thrown from the box and the carriage was smashed.
A girl who was passing the spot when the bomb was thrown was wounded by splinters and had to be taken to the hospital.
Baron von Nolken was removed to the city hall, where it was found he had received injuries on the head, neck, arm and leg, which are believed to be serious.

TO SHOOT UGLY HUSBANDS WOULD BE NO CRIME AT ALL

A New Hampshire Pastor Makes Startling Declarations In His Sunday Sermon.

[SPECIAL BY SCRIPPS-M'RAE.]
Nashua, N. H., March 27.—"A man who is downright ugly to his wife ought to be taken out into the public square and shot," said Rev. Lewis E. Fensie, pastor of the First Universalist church, in a fashionable congregation which filled the church edifice to the doors.
"I have not the slightest sympathy for such a brute," he went on. "I do not believe in capital punishment, but even if I did and I was on a jury in a case where a woman was being tried for her life for using a rolling pin—well, not for its usual purpose—I would never agree to the woman's conviction if I was convinced that her husband had been one of the nagging kind, one who is ever demanding more than his wife can do. He tempted, a masculine scold. Such a man has crushed out a heart purer than gold."
Women Idolize Husbands.
"Nothing that God ever created is so faithful as a woman. Every woman is a hero worshiper. Naturally the man she chooses for a husband she regards in that light in a very true sense. Too often her distrust is terrible. Then she carefully hides her hurt. Give her a chance and she will enthrone again the one she loved. She will work her fingers off for him if he will only show that he wants to please her."
"It is the little things, most often, which are the beginning of partings between husband and wife."
Praise Cheers Dying Wife.
"Husbands, let us not demand more of the one we have promised to protect and cherish than that one is able to do. Let us remember that the ples don't taste like mother's because our own tastes are dulled. Let us send her away on a pleasant little trip and attempt to manage the children ourselves rather than scold her because they do not always act like angels, and, above all, let us show that we appreciate her efforts to please us."
"At the bedside of his dying wife recently a husband said: 'You've always been a good wife, Mary.' 'You've never said that before, Henry,' replied the dying woman. And as she passed away a smile lighted her face such as I have rarely seen."

LOCAL TEACHERS FAVOR SALISBURY

ADVOCATE ELECTION TO STATE
SUPERINTENDENCY OF SCHOOLS.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT HIM

Interviews with Superintendent Buell and Principals of Graded Schools.

President Salisbury of Whitewater Normal school in his race against C. P. Cary for the state superintendency of public schools has the unanimous support of the teaching corps of the Janesville public schools. The great majority of Janesville instructors are personally acquainted with him and in probably no other place outside of his present field of labor is Albert Salisbury better known. Nearly every pedagogic in the city as advocating Mr. Salisbury's election to the head of Wisconsin's school system and will this year go to the polls and cast a ballot for him. No other evidence of his fitness for the position to which he aspires can there be than the favorable words of the teachers, the ones who would be under his supervision.

Words of H. C. Buell.
H. C. Buell, superintendent of the city schools and principal of the high school, says of the candidate: "For more than forty years Pres. Albert Salisbury has been a commanding figure in Wisconsin educational circles. His strong personality, his great executive ability and his broad scholarship and his high educational ideals, have all been factors in making him as one of Wisconsin's first and foremost educational leaders. It is with pleasure that the teachers throughout the state are rallying almost as a unit, to the support of one in whom they have implied confidence and are asking, in the name of the cause of education, that the voters of the state give them Pres. Albert Salisbury of Whitewater as their state superintendent."

His Widespread Work.
"It would be hard to find a teacher in Wisconsin who has not received a personal uplift in his educational work from Pres. Salisbury's public addresses at teachers' conventions or through his writings in the various educational journals of the country and many have received direct and personal help from him in their individual needs by going to him for advice and counsel. I can bear personal testimony to the help that I have received from him in many a difficulty when I have naturally turned to him for assistance and advice. His counsel was always safe, his sympathy always uplifting and his admonition when given always timely. There is a great deal of Pres. Salisbury's influence to be found in the character of every teacher and in the vital elements of every school system in the state."

Services Now Needed.
"The state of Wisconsin needs the services of a man like Pres. Salisbury at the head of its educational system as it never needed it before. In the shifting, changing, conditions of our public education today, we need wise, conservative and judicial leadership. We need a leader who will command attention when he speaks, whose words will be heeded when he utters them, and whose educational principles will have as their foundation a strong, vigorous, well-natured, scholarly character."

"These are the reasons why I am ready to give my voice and vote for the election of Pres. Salisbury of Whitewater to the office of state superintendent and it is doubtless such consideration as the above that every voting teacher in the Janesville public schools and every member of the Janesville Board of Education have signed the original call that asked this great teacher to become a candidate for this high and responsible office."

Miss Ada Brandt Speaks.
Miss Ada Brandt, principal of the Washington school of the second ward spoke the following concerning the man whom she wishes to see chosen to the state superintendency: "Albert Salisbury is a man of strong character and takes a personal interest in all the teachers with whom he comes in contact and is always willing to help them in their work and the cause of education. I believe that every instructor in the Washington school will this year vote for him at the spring election."

Miss E. May Clark's Interview.
In speaking of Mr. Salisbury and his race for the position at the head of Wisconsin's schools, Miss E. May Clark, who is a normal school graduate, principal of the Adams school in the second ward, stated: "President Salisbury has left a strong impression on educational work in the state of Wisconsin, through his commanding position in the state normal schools. It is my opinion that the entire teaching force of the Adams school is a unit for President Salisbury."

Miss Lizzie Patterson's Words.
"President Salisbury never misses a meeting of the Rock county teachers' association and every teacher in the county has received the inspiration of his strong personality and the wisdom of his counsel," said Miss Lizzie Patterson, principal of the former school of the third ward and former president of the Rock County Teachers' Association. "No one can question Mr. Salisbury's eminent fitness for the position of state superintendent and every instructor in the Jefferson school has signed his petition."

Interview With Miss Welch.
In the Lincoln School there are probably more graduates of the Whitewater normal school teaching than in any other Janesville school and Miss Helen Welch, principal of this institution, said of the candidate: "We teachers all know and honor President Salisbury of the Whitewater Normal school. His ability as an educator is evident from the character and loyalty of the graduates which he has sent from the Whitewater school. We are all anxious for his election to the office of state superintendent because we have confidence in him as a man and as an educator. All of the Lincoln school teachers will vote for him."

Miss Kate Nelson's Words.
Miss Kate Nelson, principal of the Webster school in the fourth ward, said of Albert Salisbury as a candidate for the office of superintendent of the schools of the state: "President Salisbury's interest in the common schools and the work he has done for the cause of education in Wisconsin has endeared him to the heart of every teacher of my acquaintance. We know him and we have the utmost confidence in his ability as an educator and integrity as a man."

Miss Minnie Joyce Speaks.
In an interview on the subject Miss Minnie Joyce, principal of the Douglas school in the fifth ward, said: "President Salisbury has always held up the highest educational ideals to the teachers of the public schools and at the same time he is practical in showing us the way to realize these ideals. I believe that every teacher in the fifth ward feels that the election of Mr. Salisbury to the state superintendency will mean a great uplift to the schools of the state."

Miss Lenore Casford's View.
Miss Lenore Casford, principal of the Grant school on Pleasant street, said concerning Mr. Salisbury's candidacy: "The younger teachers of the city have all been helped by the ideal sympathy and the helpful advice given by President Salisbury of the Whitewater Normal school. We not only regard him as a great educator but as a personal friend of every teacher with whom he comes in contact. We all want him for state superintendent."

What Miss Gagan Says.
Miss Monica Gagan, principal of the Jackson school in Spring Brook, said of the man whom the Janesville teachers wish for the head of the schools of the state: "We teachers in Rock county naturally desire the man for state superintendent whom we know best and respect most and in whom we have explicit confidence. President Salisbury of the Whitewater Normal is our unanimous choice and will probably receive a large vote cast by the teachers of the public schools."

EASTER LILIES WILL BE AT HAND

Promise of Plenty of These Beautiful
Flowers for April by the Florists.

Janesville florists are promising handsome displays of flowers for the Easter time, and the indications are the exhibits will be far ahead of any in the past few years. Easter lilies for the Easter time are in profusion, and will be in full bloom at the right time.

Owing to the lateness of Easter this year the florists have experienced no trouble in gauging the growth of the plants so that the blooms will arrive at the proper time, and this, added to the fact that the florists have a good supply of this precious plant will have a tendency to create much lower prices this year than those of last year.

The crop last year was woefully short owing to the fact that several of the settings were failures and also that Easter came at such an early date. Disease affected the plants last year, but each florist this year claims to have a perfectly healthy crop of plants.

The Easter lily is one of the hardest plants to raise and have it reach its perfection in the season that the florist wants it most.

The bulbs for the settings are all purchased in the land of the Japanese and are always ordered to arrive in the month of September. They are then set out in the hotbeds and moved from house to house from time to time according to the advance being made.

FACTS THAT ARE MOST IMPORTANT

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE FOR THE CITY.

MR. MATHESON'S PART KNOWN

Has Been Important in Securing
Good Ordinances and Saving
City Money.

To the Editor: As much as being said relative to the candidacy of Mr. Matheson for mayor would it not be well to print just what he has been instrumental in accomplishing?

From March 21, 1903, about two years ago, to September 16th, of the same year, about the time that the first taxes were paid in to the city treasury, there was borrowed for the fire and water, school, bridge, and general funds, the sum of $11,700. This amount was borrowed to make up deficits which should have been supplied by the taxes levied and paid the previous year.

At the present time, there is no floating indebtedness for the city, and it is expected that the amounts now in the different funds will be sufficient for the present fiscal year and until the taxes are paid.

On February 28, 1903, there were the following amounts in the following funds:

School Fund	$ 36.73
General Fund	1,962.32
Fire and Water Fund	995.50
Library Fund	2,019.87
Lighting Fund	9,005.30
Bridge Fund	366.38
Memorial Day Fund	75.00
First Ward Fund	274.97
Second Ward Fund	12.53
Third Ward Fund	34.81
Fourth Ward Fund	447.18
Fifth Ward Fund	1,346.92

A total of $16,668.91.

On February 28, 1905, there were the following amounts in the corresponding funds:

School Fund	$ 3,337.16
General Fund	15,183.52
Fire and Water Fund	6,430.16
Library Fund	2,424.28
Lighting Fund	9,405.05
Bridge Fund	750.73
Memorial Day Fund	88.77
First Ward Fund	559.50
Second Ward Fund	1,327.89
Third Ward Fund	1,701.27
Fourth Ward Fund	307.23
Fifth Ward Fund	449.59

A total of $46,907.61.

In addition to the above, we have now in sewerage district No. 5 fund, $2,451.95; sewerage district No. 6 fund, $1,100; sewerage district No. 11 fund, $1,797.4; and sewerage district No. 12 fund, $1,980.14.

The cash on hand in all the funds on February 28, 1905, amounted to $63,540.75.

Through the efforts of Mr. Matheson provision was made whereby bids were asked for the payment of interest in city deposits by the banks. The highest bid was accepted, and, up to February 28, 1905, a period of seven months, there had been paid into the city treasury, on account of interest, over $1,000. This is clear gain, with the exception of $62.50 paid for the treasurer's bond for one year. At the present time, the net gain to the city is over $950, and there are yet five months' interest to be turned into the city treasury.

You will need to prepare your system for the coming hot weather, get your organs to work like clock work. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea taken this month will do the business. 25 cents, tea or tablets. Smith Drug Co.

Bids have been called for moving the town of Sulphur, I. T., body to its new site.

MRS. HALL'S MIRACLE.

Experiences Similar to This Have Occasioned Considerable Comment in Janesville.

Few women are better known in Lockport, N. Y., than Mrs. Pattie D. Hall, as she belongs to one of the best families and has a large circle of friends and acquaintances. In a recent interview Mrs. Hall said:

"The experience I have been through in the last two years seems like a miracle. I was so badly off that life seemed almost unendurable, and my deafness increased so that I could scarcely hear anything. The suffocation caused by my catarrh, produced very severe suffering. I had five different physicians, bought everything that anybody recommended to me, but finally gave up in despair."

"One day my milliner asked me if I had ever tried Hyomel. I began the treatment, and can thankfully testify that Hyomel does cure this terrible disease. Since using it my hearing is greatly improved, and the only time I have any catarrhal trouble is when I take cold. I then use Hyomel, and always get instant relief. My friends and acquaintances marvel at the change in my health and hearing."

Hyomel has made many cures of catarrh, and in connection with Hyomel balm, of catarrhal deafness, in Janesville. Similar experiences to that of Mrs. Hall's have created a large sale for Hyomel with Peoples Drug Co.

The complete outfit, including the inhaler, costs but $1; while extra bottles are but 50 cents. Ask Peoples Drug Co. to show you the strong guaranteed under which they sell Hyomel.

QUIET REIGNS IN TOBACCO MARKETS

Breaking of Roads Blocks Delivery,
But Will Not Cause Suspension
in Handling.

Spring rains, melting snow, and softening ground has largely responsible for the quiet which now reigns in the leaf tobacco markets of Wisconsin. The country roads are in a very bad state and delivery of goods and ridings has been almost suspended. In some quarters an attempt is being made to keep the market busy and with conditions more favorable sales would be many. Were it not that the deliveries are now well along there would be a danger of scarcity of stock for the packers, but as it is there is plenty of leaf in the warehouses and a steady run is assured until the summer months with some handlers. The recent sales have mostly been made at a medium price and the following are some of the ruling prices paid for bundle leaf in Janesville: Harry, 2a at 7 1/2c; Nehls, 2a at 5 1/2c; J. F. Roach, 4a at 6 1/2c; Vincent, 2a at 6 1/2c; Wm. Holty, 2a at 5 1/2c; D. F. Johnson, 7a at 6 1/2c; Martin Conway, 4a at 6 1/2c; Thos. Farroll, 3a at 5 1/2c; Henry Anderson, 2a at 5 1/2c. The following have been noted as the prices paid in the Edgerton market: J. M. Eses, 10a at 7 1/2c; J. Christianson, 10a at 7 1/2c; E. Gunderson, 9a at 7 1/2c; O. Greteback, 7a at 6 1/2c; B. Gestad, 12a at 8 1/2c; M. C. Olson, 8a at 6 1/2c; W. LaFay, 8a at 6 1/2c; N. Olson, 8a at 6 1/2c. During last week the shipment out of storage from Edgerton reached five hundred cases. The following is the report of movements in old leaf for the Janesville market: J. A. Ryan shipped 2 cars of 1902-03 to Pennsylvania markets; J. M. Thayer shipped out 95cs of 1901 and on the same day bought a 100cs lot of 1901 binders; L. B. Carle & Son sold 300 boxes of 1901-23 and purchased 200 of the same years. S. Grundy received during the week 3 cars of bundle leaf.

ALBERT SALISBURY.

An editorial in the Waterloo Democrat of March 24, 1905, says:

President Albert Salisbury, of the State Normal School at Whitewater, has decided to become a candidate for the state superintendency at the election in April. This action on his part is in response to a petition which was circulated some weeks ago and was signed by several hundred of the leading teachers of Wisconsin and others active in educational matters. Mr. Salisbury in his letter of acceptance made it clear that he did not wish to become a candidate unless it could be as a non-partisan candidate, with the endorsement of the educational forces of the state, regardless of party and faction. This endorsement he has earned by nearly forty years of faithful service in school work and as the constitutional amendment approved two years ago requires the election to be held at the same time that the judicial election is held, it is probable that the campaign will be conducted on a professional basis.

President Salisbury is well fitted for the position. He began his education something like fifty years ago, in a country school in Rock County. His studies were interrupted by the Civil War when for two years as a private soldier he marched in the ranks and carried a rifle. Resuming his studies at the close of war, he graduated from Milton college in 1869, and at once entered the work of teaching. From that time to this, his life has been that of a worker. He was for three years a high school principal, for nine years a member of the faculty of the Whitewater Normal School, and then for three years engaged in organizing the freedmen's school of the south, under the American Missionary Association. In 1885, he was elected president of the Whitewater Normal School, and this position he has held for twenty years. In addition to his regular work in school, it may be said that during this entire period there has not been a progressive movement in educational work in the state with which he has not been identified.

It was the privilege of the writer of this article to live for five years in close touch with President Salisbury's work. Our knowledge of him is first-hand, and it is a pleasure for us to testify to the strength, the integrity, and the broad-mindedness of Salisbury, the man, and of the energy, the conscientiousness, and the skill in the administration of a school of Salisbury, the teacher. He possesses a keen sympathy and a big, generous heart. He is a man whose personality is rugged. He is, however, easy of approach on business matters. He has a reputation among those who know him of possessing a good store of the old-fashioned kind of common sense. He is a student, a man of wide interests and of sound knowledge. As a speaker, he is what would be called a hard hitter. He has a habit of thinking things out for himself, and when he speaks he does not require an interpreter. He never insinuates; he never trims. If he has anything to say he says it. He is always courteous in debate, and is eminently fair minded. Had he gone into any other profession or business, he would certainly have gone to the top.

President Salisbury is just such a man as the state needs in the superintendency at this time. This is the first election under the new system, and the term is for four years. A great forward movement is now on in this state in school affairs. From the country school up to the university, every part of the system feels the motion. As a state superintendent, Mr. Salisbury would be a useful and an efficient officer. He would administer the office in the interest of the schools. He has asked no favors of bookmen, and he has no debts to pay. He would command the respect of every educational officer in Wisconsin.

SEEKING THE POLE.

Rumor says that the Duke of Orleans has been trying, without success, to purchase the Fram, the ship in which Nansen sought the vicinity of the Pole. Why the negotiations failed does not appear, but it is not impossible that Sverdrup, who was Nansen's sailing master and who is probably able to control the sale of the vessel, wants to retain it for some venture of his own. Futile as was the endeavor of the French prince, however, it is noteworthy for the purpose which it reveals. Men of influence who have not hitherto engaged in such enterprises are eager if not actually to reach the Pole at least to surpass the performance of those who have won fame in trying to do so.

The honor of attaining latitude 86°33' and of beating Nansen's record by sixteen miles is claimed by Captain Cagat, who sustained the suicide relation to the Duke of Abruzzi that Sverdrup did to the great Swedish explorer. The spirit of international rivalry, a perfectly legitimate motive, is evidently one of the forces which impel the Duke of Orleans to brave the perils of Arctic seas; and if his ambition is realized France will rob Italy of the distinction which the latter now enjoys. Americans, appreciating the value of experience in such undertakings, expect Peary to win the greatest glory attainable in this field of activity. They have no reason, therefore, for wanting the Frenchman to abandon his attempt. Having failed to get the Fram, the Duke of Orleans will doubtless endeavor to buy, or borrow, another ship that has had a similar experience. The Gauss, built for the German Antarctic expedition of 1902-03, is beyond his reach, having been sold to Canada. The Terra Nova, one of the ships sent to the south of New Zealand to find the British Antarctic expedition, has been bought by Mr. Ziegler, and will be used in northern waters next summer; but the Discovery, which has been further south than any other craft yet built, and the vessels which carried the recent Swedish and Scottish Antarctic expeditions ought to be available; and if none of them can be secured it is not impossible to build an entirely new ship, as Peary has done.

SHOULD BE IMPRESSED.

The fact that Janesville needs a good firm business administration should be firmly impressed upon the minds of all tax payers of the city. In Alexander Matheson, the republican candidate for Mayor, such a man can be found. His record in the common council is beyond reproach, and his ability as a business man is not questioned. Mr. Matheson is a man to whom the taxpayers of the city can tie to. He is conscientious, too much so for his own good, in the extreme. He does and acts what he thinks to be right and such a man would be an honor and a credit to the city of Janesville. This question of a business administration does not rest solely with the mayor and the council should be composed of firm, stable men who have no personal axes to grind or self interests to promote. Fool ordinances are all right in their place but too many of them and too much prominence to this sort of legislation does not do credit to the ward the alderman represents. Good, honest business men are wanted for our city fathers and there is a straight line of them on the republican ticket. Vote it straight and you can make no mistake.

Why not hustle and get to work on this question of securing the winter quarters of the Forepaugh-Sells circus for Janesville?

Gaining the south's good will by returning a few battered battle flags would seem to be a good investment at a low price.

PRESS COMMENT.

Chicago Record-Herald: If you don't know what it's all about ask Lincoln Steffen. He's in town on purpose.

Philadelphia Inquirer: Wisconsin now has a rigid anti-cigarette law. Wonder if her boys will ever find it out?

Madison Journal: A German editor offers three prizes for the best articles on "How Can I Best Marry off My Daughters?" Teach them to cook.

La Crosse Chronicle: Evidently the Babcock shock froze the editor of the Milwaukee Free Press, for he hasn't yelped once about the appointment.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: Mr. Carnegie advises men not to work for wages any longer than they have to. If there were no wage-earners what would become of the future Cynagies?

Los Angeles Times: The report that a substitute for hair had been discovered turns out to be simply another cruel ruse to lure the bald-headed men away from the front rows.

Kansas City Journal: A New Jersey preacher threw dishes at his wife and wrote poetry to another woman. Those who saw samples of the poetry think that other women got the worst of it.

El Paso Herald: Marquis Oyama alleges that it is "the Mikado's virtues" which are winning these Manchurian battles. Perhaps his majesty has them canned and sent out for use in the big guns.

Springfield (Mass.) Republican: The stories of fraudulent awards at the St. Louis exposition are helping to drive nails into the coffin for the world's fair business in the future. How disgusting are bogus medals!

Madison Democrat: The splendid manner in which the voters of the Fifth ward rallied to defeat the man who had become established as the "lunch" candidate is gratifying in the extreme.

Oshkosh Northwestern: Whiting, Ind., is virtuously indignant at the blotted monster, the Standard Oil, which as bought the village cemetery and proposes to run oil pipes through it. But it could not have bought unless the village had been willing to sell.

Evansville Review: The young ladies of Janesville are entering a lengthy protest against the practice of the young men of that town, standing on street corners and gazing longingly after them. Too bad, the dear girls are so attractive that the aforesaid y. m. can not but admire them, and on the streets seems to be the only place where they are to be found.

Evening Wisconsin: Concerning the bill to prevent the exhibition of snakes, which was killed by the assembly, it can be said that no legislation could save men from seeing snakes who deliberately invite the exhibition by the libatory process.

Winneconne Local: While it is a matter for arguments as to whether or not the constitution follows the flag, there is no questioning the fact that the gruffers keep tight on the heels of the emblem of liberty.

Appleton Crescent: The legislature made a mistake in refusing the appropriation for the Portland exposition. True, expositions have been coming pretty fast, but this is purely a western affair and the fact that Wisconsin has large commercial interests in Washington and Oregon should alone warrant the small expense that is necessary to have this state represented at the Lewis and Clark exposition. It is to be hoped that the assembly will reconsider its vote.

Madison Journal: It is not forgotten there is such a thing as the school trust that has interfered in our state politics and impudently contributed money for political purposes. Professor Salisbury, president of the Whitewater Normal school, is a leading candidate for the office of state superintendent, and is receiving many handsome endorsements, regardless of old party differences. It is the trust that is so interested in the frequent changes of our public school system with falsehoods.

Milwaukee News: It is not clear why property of former soldiers and sailors should be exempted from taxation. If it is deemed desirable for the state to pension former soldiers and sailors, it should do so directly, not by exempting their property from taxation. But with the federal government expending nearly $150,000,000 annually in pensions, there appears to be no occasion to supplement federal pensions with state pensions. If there were no objection to exempting the property of soldiers and sailors from taxation as a policy, the constitutional requirement for uniformity in taxation should prove a bar to such exemptions.

HOW THEY VIEW WISCONSIN CROP

Eastern Tobacco Man Talks of the Wisconsin Leaf to a Reporter.

The following clipping from a hotel column of a Milwaukee paper is of interest to tobacco growers in Rock County:

"Wisconsin's tobacco crop for this year is now ready for the market," said H. J. Thomas, a Chicago tobacco buyer at the Plankinton. "Most crops are ready for market after they have been taken from the fields, but with tobacco it is different. The growth is only a small fraction of the processes through which the weed must go before it is ready for consumption."

"For the last six months it has been stored in the drying and storage houses to complete the curing process. During the last few weeks there have been more shipments from the tobacco raising states than during the preceding six months. As to the Wisconsin product, in the last few years it has risen greatly in reputation as a good grade of leaf. Until recently it was supposed that tobacco could be raised only in the best of soil and at that only for a few years before the nourishment was sapped from the ground."

"The latter is an uncontroverted fact now, but the grades raised in some parts of Wisconsin, where the soil is of the sandiest nature, belies the opinion that only rich soil will produce well. It is not the richness, but some composition of the ground, that seems to favor the growth in places where every condition is unfavorable. The house I represent ranks the better Wisconsin varieties with the Atlantic country varieties."

In Justice Court: In Judge Earle's court this afternoon was commenced, the action of the town of Turtle vs. Jerome Shimeall, ex-deputy sheriff, brought for the purpose of exacting the penalty and damage of $50 under the statute for alleged failure to return a warrant served on a citizen to compel him to pay his poll-tax some years ago.

Coe, Shot Wonder.

Career of New Rival of Ralph Rose — Michigan Athletics.

Wesley W. Coe of Somerville, Mass., is the new sensation of the athletic world. Coe is a phenomenal shot putter and is a worthy rival of Ralph W. Rose, the former Michigan university wonder. Quite recently the easterner put the sixteen pound shot 49 feet 7 1/2 inches, breaking the record previously held by Rose of 48 feet 7 inches.

Although James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union,

COE PUTTING THE SHOT.

"throw out" Coe's record put because it was made with an unofficial shot, the feat was a striking evidence of the New Englander's ability. He is looked on as the coming champion.

Coe is now twenty-five years of age, is five feet ten inches in height and weighs 226 pounds.

Rose is six feet six inches in height and weighs 250 pounds. Rose dislikes severe training, but since his best mark has been endangered by Coe is expected to work harder.

Coe, who has been prominent as a shot putter for a number of years, was at one time a student at Oxford university.

Secretary Sullivan, who is chairman of the record committee of the Amateur Athletic Union, was in Boston recently and in connection with the officials of the New England association examined the shot that Coe put at the games at Medford, Mass., when he made the new world's record of 49 feet 7 1/2 inches.

The shot was not an official metal sphere, but a bag of buckshot covered with leather and usually used for indoor practice and is not allowed when a world's record or an American record is to be made.

Investigation also brought out that had the shot been a metal sphere the record would not have been allowed, for at this meeting they did not have a wood or iron ring.

Michigan apparently does not need Rose. A sensation was sprung by the rosters in Michigan's varsity track meet recently when, instead of one extraordinary shot putter, two made an appearance. The men are Dunlap and Garrels. Dunlap scored a put of 45 feet 2 inches, while Garrels threw the weight 43 feet 6 inches. Dunlap is a senior and Garrels a sophomore. Both showed good form last year, but were overshadowed by Rose.

Good time was made in the quarter mile run by the two veterans, Goodwin and Garrels. They finished within a fraction of a second of each other, Goodwin leading. The time, 53 4/5 seconds, was within a fifth of a second of the Michigan indoor record.

AGAIN CHAMPION.

Tom Jenkins of Cleveland Finally Wins From Gotch.

The recent capture of the American wrestling championship by Tom Jenkins of Cleveland has proved one of the most talked of happenings of the year.

LIQUOR RUINS WEALTHY MAN

Former Merchant Prince Goes to Stone Pile for Drunkenness.

Bloomington, Ill., March 27.—Broken down physically, penniless and apparently friendless, O. N. Anstead, once a merchant prince of Macon county, appeared in court here to answer to a charge of drunkenness. He was sent to the stone pile to break rock for the streets. Twenty years ago he was one of the leading business men of the county. His arrest was a shock to his former friends. Anstead told the court that he was one of four heirs to his father's estate, valued at $30,000, and that he received yet a remittance of $50 a month as his share of the income. An effort will be made to secure improved conditions for him.

BREWERY FIRE COSTS $125,000.

Freight Depot of Anheuser-Busch Company in St. Louis Burns.

St. Louis, March 27.—The freight depot of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing association, in the center of its freight yards in the southern part of the city, was destroyed by fire Sunday, together with seventeen refrigerator cars, the property of the St. Louis Refrigerating Car Company, of which Acropolis Busch is the president. The loss is estimated at $125,000.

Hay's Health Improves.

Ponta Delgada, Azores, March 27.—When the steamer Cretic arrived here Saturday from New York, Secretary of State Hay, who was ill when the ship sailed on March 18, declared he was much improved.

FLORIDA PHILOSOPHY.

Cling a little closer to the faith of your heart.

Baptize the mind with the passion of true ideals.

Life has many sorrows that become exquisite pain.

Give a weak man a little success, and you will destroy him.

If you are looking for a faultless friend, you are sure to remain friendless.

Not until each entity shall work for all will justice sit at the door of all men.

All the preaching since Adam has not squeezed the selfishness out of man.

So many people pray with their lips, while the heart throbs on after other creeds.

There is not an hour of human existence but what trembles with its destinies.

Winter, may be upon the earth, but the flowers of summer should be in your soul.

The harder becomes the battle of life, greater will the iron grow into your nerves.

In your soul there's a room filled with sunshine, with golden doors, and the true heart carries the key of rays.

So laugh and sing—go merrily about life's task, keep the heart in tune, tear from hate and envy the evil mask.

When fortune frowns and folds her arms in defiance, court her the harder and finally she will fall into your arms.

In the moods of grief and gladness, marching past the years so long, seems but shadows of a shadow, and the echoes of a song—Florida Times-Union.

Loss of Sleep Means Loss of Mind.

Inability to Sleep is Nature's Plain Warning of an Exhausted Nervous System.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS.

When you overwork any muscle or set of muscles they tire and must have rest. What is true of muscle is doubly true of the brain, as from it emanates all power to work, to act, to think. The brain is full of little cells that during the waking hours are never quiet in their efforts to furnish to every organ the power to do its duty. Rob these little cells of their rest at night—keep them at work all the time, and soon they tire, refuse to act, fail to generate nerve force and the system goes to ruin. Bromides, sedatives, opiates only hasten the end—they do not build up, they tear down. The true remedy the only cure lies in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, a medicine that revitalizes, reinvigorates, and by properly nourishing these overworked little cells, give them rest and quiet and enables one to sleep naturally and easily again.

Mrs. Fred Wholeben of Glade Run, Warren, Pa., says:

"I was induced to use Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills for excessive nervousness. I was so nervous I could not bear a noise or much talking. I was very forgetful—my mind seemed dull. I was listless and tired all the time. The result of the use of the box I got was remarkable. They toned up the nerves and system generally and I was well again, am strong—my mind is clear and noise and talk no longer bother me. I am much pleased with the pills and can recommend them highly to anyone who feels as I did." 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medical Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Portrait and signature of A. W. WATER CURE IS FREE TO ALL.

Owner of a Medical Spring Prefers to Aid Mankind Gratis.

New Castle, Ind., March 27.—James Keplinger is the proud possessor of a mineral spring which, if he cared to sell, would bring him a very snug fortune. The well is on a farm of 60 acres a few miles south of this city and it is so rich in medicinal properties that it rivals the famous springs of West Baden and Martinsville. An eastern medicine company recently offered Keplinger $40,000 for the land, but he refused to sell. Mr. Keplinger has some very strong altruistic ideas and would rather keep his farm and tender the water to all who care for it, free of charge, than sell his small farm for such a fabulous figure.

MORTON CUTS HIS TRIP SHORT

Will Hurry Back From Cuba to Accompany Roosevelt Party.

Washington, March 27.—Secretary of the Navy Morton, who recently left in the Dolphin for Porto Rican and Cuban ports, has found it necessary to curtail his visits at the different places where stops are scheduled to be made in order that he may return to Washington in time to join the presidential party, which will leave here on April 3 for a trip to Texas and Colorado. A hurried call was made at San Juan and even with brief stops at Guantanamo and Havana it is calculated that the Dolphin barely will land the secretary in the United States in time to start with the president on his journey.

AUTO COLLISION BRINGS DEATH.

Woman Dies When Machine is Struck by Electric Car.

Los Angeles, March 27.—In an automobile accident at Hollywood, a suburb, Mrs. Sherman Pease was instantly killed and her husband, Sherman Pease, seriously injured. Two other occupants of the car, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Welcome, sustained slight injuries. The automobile was struck by an electric car at the crossing while running at full speed.

Parents Save Lives of Little Ones by Odd Expedient.

Tallula, Ill., March 27.—Being reared in a chicken brooder, the two infant daughters of Sylvester and Mrs. Bast promise to live to be credited to their parents. The twins were born March 23, and as there was no baby incubator within miles, the attending physician pressed the brooder into service to save the lives of the little ones.

Resigns From Board of Regents.

St. Paul, Minn., March 27.—Col. W. M. Liggitt, dean of the State Agricultural college and a member of the board of regents of the State university, has resigned as a member of the board of regents. B. F. Nelson of Minneapolis was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Nebraska Cordage Factory.

Lincoln, Neb., March 27.—The legislature of Nebraska has appropriated $200,000 with which to fight the cordage trust. It is proposed to build a factory and manufacture binder twine at a price for which the trust cannot possibly afford to make it.

Found "Seven Barks", A Splendid Medicine For Kidney and Liver.

On November 27, 1903, Mrs. Lucie E. Champagne, of Central Nassau, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Seven Barks with excellent results. I think it is a splendid medicine for Kidney and Liver troubles, and it cannot be beat for Constipation. Accept my thanks for what it has done for me. I was in a bad shape when I commenced using it, and I am a well woman today."

If your kidneys trouble you, if your liver is sluggish, or if you are constipated, there's no remedy like Seven Barks. It is purely vegetable, easy to take (small dose) and will put you right quicker than anything else. If you've any doubts about it, a 50-cent bottle of Seven Barks will remove them, and the money isn't ours until you say you're cured. Your word decides it, not ours. No cure, no pay. That's our way of getting skeptical people to try this grand old remedy. Do you know of a better way?

ELECTION NOTICE.

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK,
March 27, 1905.

To the Electors of Rock County:

Notice is hereby given that a judicial and school election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the county of Rock, on the 4th day of April, 1905, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The name of the candidate for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, are given opposite the title of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column and the questions submitted to vote are stated below:

INFORMATION TO VOTERS.

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters: A voter upon entering the polling place, and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk, which must have endorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other ballot can be used. Upon receiving this ballot, the voter must retire alone to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. If a voter wishes to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties, he should make a cross mark under the name of each candidate he desires to vote for, or at any place within the space in which the name is printed. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office, whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot he spoiled it must be returned to the ballot clerk who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memoranda to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth, or compartment, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same to be chosen by the voter, and if he declares that he is totally blind he may be assisted by any person chosen by him from among the legal voters of the county. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are, for example, as follows:

LUPID RANSACKS THE SCHOOL.

Seizes Eighteen of the Ninety Teachers in Manchester, N. H.

Manchester, N. H., March 27.—The board of education of this city is facing the hardest proposition it has ever encountered. It has learned that at the end of the school year eighteen of the teachers are going to resign. Cupid has not played hokey in Manchester, but has a 100 mark in attendance at the schools, and the eighteen are going to become June brides. The humor of the thing is that there are about ninety teachers in the city schools and the eighteen who are scheduled are enjoying the quizzing their less fortunate companions are getting, as all the teachers are "suspected."

Did Not Rob Himself.

Pomeroy, O., March 27.—The jury in the noted county treasury robbery case returned a verdict of not guilty against Treasurer T. J. Chase. The trial grows out of the robbery of the county treasury of nearly $15,000 last September, in which Chase claimed he was held up by masked men and robbed.

Policemen Must Not Drink.

Bloomington, Ill., March 27.—The city council of Danville has adopted an ordinance which provides that policemen must not drink liquor. A license will be revoked upon any saloonkeeper or druggist who furnishes a policeman with any intoxicant.

Snake Attacks Zoo Keeper.

New York, March 27.—Keeper Snyder, in charge of the snakehouse at the Bronx zoo, had a narrow escape from death when he was attacked by one of the big pythons, which made a thrust at him and missed him by a hair's breadth.

Police Chief is Ousted.

San Francisco, Cal., March 27.—Chief of Police Whitman and three patrolmen have been dismissed from the police force on the charge of having accepted graft money in connection with the running of dives and immoral resorts in Chinatown.

Fair Building Collapses.

St. Louis, Mo., March 27.—While workmen were engaged in raising the building erected by the state of Washington at the World's fair the building suddenly collapsed and three men were injured.

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

STATE OF WISCONSIN,
COUNTY OF ROCK.

Notice is hereby given that at a judicial election to be held in the several towns, wards, villages and election districts in the County of Rock and State of Wisconsin, on the first Tuesday in April, A. D. 1905, being the fourth day of said month, the following officers are to be elected, viz.:

A Justice of the Supreme Court, in place of Hon. John B. Winslow, whose term of office will expire on the first Monday in January, 1906.

A County Judge, for the full term commencing on the first Monday in January, A. D. 1906, in place of Hon. John W. Sale, whose term of office will expire on the first Monday in January, 1906.

A Judge of Municipal Court, in place of Hon. Charles L. Fifield, whose term of office will expire on the last Monday in June, 1905.

A State Superintendent of Schools, in place of Hon. Charles P. Cary, whose term of office will expire on the first Monday in July, 1905.

A County Superintendent of Schools, 1st District, in place of Charles H. Hemmingway, whose term of office will begin on the first Monday in July, 1905.

A County Superintendent of Schools, 2nd District, in place of O. D. Antisdel, whose term of office will begin on the first Monday in July, 1905.

Said election shall be held and conducted, votes canvassed and returns made in accordance with law.

Given under my hand and official seal at the Court House in the City of Janesville, this 9th day of March, A. D. 1905.

HOWARD W. LEE,
County Clerk.

SPECIAL ELECTION

To Vote on Question of Issuing Bonds for Bridge.

Published by authority of the common council of the city of Janesville.

Office of the city clerk, Janesville, Wisconsin, March 11, 1905.

To the electors of the city of Janesville:

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to a resolution of the common council of the city of Janesville, adopted the 20th day of February, 1905, a special election will be held in the city of Janesville, on the 4th day of April, 1905, at the same time the annual election for ward and city officers is held, for the purpose of submitting to the vote of the electors thereof, the question of raising not to exceed $25,000, by issuing the corporate bonds of the city of Janesville, to pay for the erection and construction of a bridge across Rock river, at Racine street, and that such vote will be taken and polled at the following polling places in said city, viz.:

Election District No. 1, first ward: the street commissioner's office, in the northeast corner of the basement of the city hall.

Election District No. 2, second ward: the building owned by Thoroughgood & Co., at the northwest corner of Fourth avenue and North Main street.

Election District No. 3, third ward: the voting booth owned by the city on Racine street, east of and near South Main street.

Election District No. 4, fourth ward: the shop at No. 53 South Academy street.

Election District No. 5, fifth ward: the voting booth owned by the city on Holmes street, east of and near Center avenue.

The polls in each election district will be open from six o'clock in the morning until seven o'clock in the evening, and the election will be conducted by the inspectors and clerks of the several election districts who are required to conduct the annual election for ward and city officers, and the result thereof determined by them and returned to the undersigned.

The vote on said question will be taken on the voting machines used for said annual election and the official ballots arranged on said machines in the place provided for such purpose will have printed thereon the words, "Shall bonds for $25,000 for construction of a bridge across Rock river, at Racine street, be issued?"

To vote in favor of the question submitted, turn the question pointer on the machine to the word "Yes," and leave it there.

To vote against the question submitted, turn the question pointer on the machine to the word "No," and leave it there.

A ROSE OF NORMANDY

By
WILLIAM R. A. WILSON

"He will never come back here, I know," continued Madame Bizard, "for he ought to know that my husband would shoot him down the instant he arrived. Yes," she went on, "as she saw Renee give a start, 'he even tried his wiles on me, the miscreant! Of course, one cannot blame a man for desiring to be friendly, and for seeking the acquaintance of a woman of my position, who, although I repeat it myself, is said to be at least passably good-looking. He should, however, have paid attention to the ordinary proprieties of civilized people, and should not have so outraged my feelings of wifely honor and womanly pride by actually making love to me, and the night before his departure urging me to flee with him to the wilderness."

An exclamation from Renee interrupted her, and she saw that the girl had picked her finger with her needle and stained the fabric she was working with a drop of blood.

"There is a man," the woman continued, much to Renee's relief, "who has all of his virtues and none of his faults, who came on the same ship with you; I wonder you did not see him. He is called 'le Comte,' and is staying with the intendante. I have met him several times when at the palace and have seen him in the distance while walking. I want you to meet him. M. le Gouverneur will not object to your receiving a friend of the intendante. I have in fact invited him to call, and, mon Dieu!" she cried, "with a blush of pleasure as she glanced out of the window, 'here he is coming to the house this moment.' Renee looked in the direction pointed out to her and saw the figure of a young man approaching. He lifted up his face toward the window, the sunlight smote it. Renee uttered a cry of terror fell back in a swoon. She had recognized the Comte de Miron.

CHAPTER XVI.

RELATES THE EVENTS THROUGH WHICH A BIRD IN THE HAND BECAME TWO IN THE BUSH.

Week after week followed with dreams of home, of green fields and trees and brooks, interspersed with glimpses of sad, patient, sympathetic faces of nuns and the rustling of their holy garments, which seemed like the sound of angels' wings, and Renee awakened to a realization that the former were but dreams and the latter assurance that the latter were all ways near to comfort and protect her. Some spoke of ship fever contracted on the voyage during which two members of the crew had died, notwithstanding the fact that she had been ashore a full month before falling ill. Others shook their heads and whispered something about a strange disease, lately found among the Indians, that seized upon the mind as well as the body. All agreed that it would need every effort to strengthen the weakened frame and renew the brain that seemed to rally most tardily. In reality it was the downward flow of the news of her lover's unfaithfulness, and the sight of the man she feared and whom she believed to be dead, coming as it did after the fatigue of her long voyage and close confinement of her stuffy cabin, that proved too great a shock to the nervous system of the young girl.

The governor came daily, and strove with real distress to encourage the sufferer. Madame Bizard appeared frequently too, telling her of the outside world and urging her to a quick convalescence. But somehow the desire to recover was lacking in the patient. It was as though a spring had snapped within her leaving inertia instead of energy, and a desire to slumber on in sweet forgetfulness rather than the determination to resume the weary load of life again. But her release was not to be, and as she slowly began to regain ground she found relief and her chief pleasure in the companionship of the nuns who nursed her. Their life in its seclusion and usefulness appealed to her heart, and gradually the fancy for a religious life became strengthened to a determination. Her own existence would always be a blank, and could she do better than to fill out her remaining years in the service of God? He had evidently had a purpose in permitting her to live almost against her will.

When she first told Frontenac of her decision he stormed and swore he would ship her back to France; then, as he saw that she remained unshaken in her resolution, he finally suggested a compromise to which she agreed. This was that she was to remain with the nuns for two years as a domestic or religious helper who has taken no vows. If, after this novitiate she still persisted in her purpose, he would offer no objection to her entering the sisterhood. He hoped that in so long a period events would alter conditions in France so that she could be sent home in safety.

It was indeed the Comte de Miron whom Renee had seen as she looked out of the window. Tont's sword-point entering his breast had touched a rib and, glancing upwards, had wounded the lung tissue severely, barely missing the heart. The copious hemorrhage that followed well-nigh strangled him. His faithful coachman finding that he still breathed had taken him to a house on the outskirts of Paris, called a leech and summoned one of the Comte's friends, whose name he had given him before the duel for use in any such emergency. Together they combated the enormous loss of blood and weakness that followed. On convalescing, his friend, learning of the king's expression of satisfaction in the supposed death of the Comte, hurried him away to an estate in Brittany. There they abode together for many months, riding and hunting.

As spring came his faithful confidant went to Paris to see if it were safe for him to come to life again. He returned in a month with bad news. One of the Comte's numerous peculiarities in the state funds, which he had committed while secretary to Colbert, had come to light, rendering it hazardous for him to appear again in Paris or even remain in France, for if by any chance he were apprehended it would mean the loss of his head. Accordingly, they laid their plans and he was hurried aboard the next ship that sailed for New France. This happened to be the one on which Renee traveled. Both of them seeking to escape observation seldom left their cabins. Hence it was that each was ignorant of the other's presence.

Bearing a letter to Duchesneau from a friend, the Comte presented himself at the palace immediately upon his arrival. Staying at the palace, he soon became acquainted with all of Duchesneau's friends and agents. It was there that he met Madame Bizard, who had come to make her regular report to the intendante, of all she had learned. He had refrained from going about the city to any great extent, hence had never seen Renee; and it was while on an errand for Duchesneau that he had caught a glimpse of Madame Bizard's face at the window, and, remembering her invitation to call, had stopped. Well supplied with money, which he spent carelessly, he soon made many friends. Seeing the impression the young man had made upon the susceptible Madame Bizard, Duchesneau urged him to continue in his attentions, hoping that the young Comte might be thus thrown with Lieut. Bizard in a friendly way and ultimately win him over to the side of the intendante.

Frontenac before long became conscious of a new force that was aiding his enemy, insidiously undermining his influence among many of his adherents. He was at a loss to account for this, and it was some time ere he suspected the stranger. Finally, several discoveries confirmed his suspicions, and he realized that in the person of the young man there lay a useful ally for the intendante and a dangerous enemy to himself. He was powerless to do anything, however, as the Comte, although an acknowledged friend of Duchesneau, was still louder in his professions of friendship and respect for the governor and the colony. So Frontenac was obliged to bide his time until by some overt act or word he would lay himself liable to legal interference.

The mischief that he made became so great that the governor was desperate. At length an audacious speech made by the Comte de Miron evenning was reported to him. He saw his opportunity. The Comte was brought before the council, and several witnesses testified to having heard him boastingly remark that there was nothing like righting one's wrongs oneself, and that when the English cut off the head of Charles I, they did a good thing, besides several utterances of a similar tenor. He was, therefore, accused of speaking ill of royalty in the person of the king of England, and uttering words tending to sedition. The intendante and his followers in the council did their utmost to protect their ally, but in vain. Frontenac's influence carried the day and he was adjudged guilty. The governor forced the council to impose the most humiliating penalty possible, in order to discourage any others from taking up the cause of Duchesneau. Accordingly, he was dragged ignominiously from prison, by the public executioner and led by a rope around his neck, with a torch in hand, to the gate of the Chateau, there to beg pardon of the king; thence to the pillory of the lower town, where he was branded on the cheek with a fleur-de-lis and set in the stocks for half an hour; then he was led back to prison and placed in irons. This was to be repeated three times.

The man while passing through the terrible ordeal of the day had seen the face of Madame Bizard in the crowd, who smiled and nodded encouragingly. They had become great friends, and the Comte was glad to find one kindly glance. The room in which he was confined was on the ground-floor of the Chateau. Scarcely had he thrown himself exhausted upon the bed placed beneath the little grated opening that admitted air and light, when a summons at the door engaged his guard's attention for the moment. Just at this juncture the prisoner felt something drop on his chest from above, and saw that a tiny parcel had been thrown in through the window. He quickly opened it and recognized a key fitting his fetters, wrapped in a piece of paper on which was written:

"Escape to-night at 11: there is worse in store for you. You will find all the doors unlocked." There was no name signed, but he recognized the writing.

At dark his jailer left him and was replaced by four trusty soldiers of Frontenac. They examined his irons and then left him to himself, a seemingly half-unconscious being, huddled upon the bed near the door, which was fastened upon the inside by an iron cross-bar. After their conversation began to flag they stacked their arms, took the one light in the room to a further corner, leaving the bed in a half shadow, and proceeded to pass away the time with cards. The prisoner hearkened to a distant clock in the Chateau striking ten and heard the sounds of closing the building for the night as the inmates retired. Carefully he inserted the key into the lock of the iron on his right hand, which was freed; then into that of the left, and it was liberated also. Slowly he reached down, watching with half-closed eyes the group of soldiers in the corner attentive to their game, and withdrew his legs from the encircling fetters. He waited impatiently for the clock to sound 11 and wondered what he would do if he found his information false. Perhaps it was all a trap to induce him to attempt to escape! He would chance it. Eleven o'clock struck; the players laughed guardedly at their game. He arose, and with one bound seized the four guns.

The rattling noise attracted the attention of the soldiers, who started up only to find their prisoner freed and with one of the guns pointed at them. Before they recovered from their astonishment he had slipped the bolt; the door swung open. Speeding down the corridor, he found the doors that barred his way were all unfastened. He heard the shouts of alarm raised by the soldiers; the last door opened into the night air; he was free!

The next day all Quebec was astir with search-parties hunting for the escaped prisoner; he was not found. The day after it was learned that Madame Bizard had disappeared also.

Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Help.

She Has Guided Thousands to Health.—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Fred Seydel.

above all, a woman who has had more experience in treating female ills than any living person.

Over one hundred thousand cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pinkham every year, some personally, others by mail, and this has been going on for twenty years, day after day. Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman of such experience, especially when it is absolutely free.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimonial letter published is done so with the written consent or request of the writer, in order that other sick women may be benefited as they have been.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, of 412 North 5th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Over a year ago I wrote you a letter asking advice, as I had female ills and could not carry a child to maturity. I received your kind letter of instructions and followed your advice. I am not only a well woman in consequence, but have a beautiful baby girl. I wish every suffering woman in the land would write you for advice, as you have done so much for me."

Just as surely as Mrs. Seydel was cured, will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills. No other medicine in all the world has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Therefore no prudent woman will accept any substitute which a druggist may offer.

If you are sick, write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helpful.

Do You Need Bracing Up?

No other tonic in the world is like Paine's Celery Compound; no other remedy takes so simple and scientific a way to perform its wonders. Paine's Celery Compound acts directly upon the nerves, feeding them Nature's nerve food—celery—filling them with new vitality. Through the nerves it acts upon the blood, purifying it, strengthening it, making it pure and strong and red and healthy. No other remedy purifies so gently and so quickly.

Paine's Celery Compound is the one known prescription that purifies without purging or weakening the system in any way.

If you feel "run down," "used up," nervous, tired, in other words, if you need bracing up, try Paine's Celery Compound.

Learn the full luxury and delight of being always at your best, able to live your life for all that is in it. Feel the exultant thrill of pure, rich blood and abundant Nerve Force, made by Paine's Celery Compound.

Paine's Celery Compound gives real Nerve Force, instead of the false activity imparted by mere stimulants. It is the best and quickest nerve tonic.

Tired, weak-nerved, thin-blooded, unhappy men and women get quick, sure, hearty health from this celebrated Nerve Vitalizer and Tonic. It drives away lassitude, gives courage and strength. It makes a rich increase in blood supply, and makes the whole system thrill with hearty health.

Miss Mary Stone, Secretary of the Young People's Christian Temperance Society of Milwaukee, tells her experience after feeling "run down" for months.

We have used Paine's Celery Compound in our family for a number of years and a few months ago when I felt so worn out and run down that I thought I would have to give up my work and take a vacation earlier, mother suggested that I try a couple of bottles of Paine's Celery Compound. A few doses made me feel quite different, my appetite increased, I began to sleep well at night and felt rested in the morning. In a very short time I felt like a different being and am glad to say that my medicine made it possible for me to continue my work uninterrupted. Yours very truly, Miss Mary Stone, 2621 Lisbon Ave., Milwaukee, Wis. Secretary Young People's Christian Temperance Society.

Try Paine's Celery Compound YOURSELF when you feel exhausted—when you grow tired sooner than you should—when you lose patience with the irritating cares of daily life—when you feel that your hopes and ambitions are not as high as they used to be—when you spend a sleepless night—when you get up almost as weary as when you went to bed—when you are worried—when the tired feeling puts its heavy touch upon you.

That is when you need the new Nerve Force, the good blood and fresh vitality that is given by PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Don't wait. Try Paine's Celery Compound today.

Take just one dose when you go to face the hard part of the day's trials. See how much better you feel.

See how much more easily the trials roll away. Two days' treatment with Paine's Celery Compound will give proof of its marvelous powers.

For 18 years this famous prescription has been the most universally used tonic in the world. It has stood the test of time. Physicians constantly use and prescribe it. No prescription has ever been formulated that equaled it in curative power. Remember this—Paine's Celery Compound is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians this country has ever known, and all reputable Druggists sell and recommend it.

OFFICIAL NOTICE—NO. 14

Notice to Contractors—Street Improvement.

Office of the Street Assessment Committee, City of Janesville, Wis., March 11th, 1905.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until the 14th day of April, 1905 at two o'clock in the afternoon, for furnishing all the material and doing all the work necessary and required to improve South Main street, from the north side of East Milwaukee street and the South side of South First street; East Milwaukee street, from the east side of South Main street to the East side of Division street and West Milwaukee street, from the east side of High street to the west side of Academy street, according to the respective specifications, profiles, plans and details thereof on file in the office of the city clerk of said city, for the inspection of bidders.

Said streets are to be graded to a sub-grade, and surfaced with a brick pavement, together with curbing made of stone where required, and the work upon each of said streets will be let under separate contracts. Work shall be commenced upon each of said streets on or before the 1st day of May, 1905, and the whole work shall be completed on or before the 1st day of July, 1905, failing in which the contractor shall pay to the city of Janesville as liquidated damages, the sum of twenty-five dollars per day for each and every day's delay in completing said work.

Directions to Bidders. Each bidder must accompany his bid with a contract and bond, with not less than two sureties, who shall be freeholders of the state of Wisconsin, and shall justify as to their responsibility and by their several affidavits show that they are worth in the aggregate at least the amount of the entire contract price in property not by law exempt from execution. Surety companies authorized to do business in this state will be accepted in lieu of personal sureties.

Said contracts and bonds, with sureties, must be completely executed on the part of the contractor, with the exception of the signatures on the part of the city. THIS IS A POSITIVE REQUIREMENT OF THE CHARTER AND MUST BE COMPLIED WITH. Bids failing to comply with the above requirements will not be considered.

Bidders must submit proposals to do the entire work according to the specifications, profiles, plans and details thereof prepared for the street upon which such bid is made, stating therein prices respectively per square yard of brick pavement; per cubic yard for grading; per lineal foot for furnishing stone curbing in place; per lineal foot for furnishing protection curbing in place; per lineal foot for resetting curbing and per lineal foot for resetting protection curbing, so far as the same are applicable to said work, under the specifications, profiles and plans.

No bid will be considered unless it contains a price for doing the work, with a kind of brick or paving block, a sample of which has been approved by the street assessment committee. No bid will be considered that does not contain prices for doing the entire work on the street upon which such bid is made, as called for in the specifications; profiles and plans. The bids for the work and material will be canvassed separately and considered in the aggregate based on the estimated quantities named in the specifications and awarded as separate contracts for each of said streets. All bids and the accompanying contracts and bonds must be written on the blanks prepared by the undersigned for the purpose, and prices should be stated in writing and in figures.

Address all bids as follows: "Street Assessment Committee," with the name of the street upon which such bid is made marked on the envelope, and file the same with the city clerk of said city.

N. B.—Blanks for the proposals and blank contracts and bond for each street will be furnished on application to the city clerk.

The bids, when the lowest ones, will be decided by the street assessment committee.

The said committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Signed, J. F. HUTCHINSON, C. V. KERCH, W. A. MURRAY, A. E. MATHESON, W. H. MERRITT, Street Assessment Committee.
